

COOKIES

This website uses cookies to improve your experience. By continuing to browse the site, you are agreeing to our use of cookies.

At Vinco, we use cookies to allow us to personalise your visits to this site, keep track of your preferences and learn about the way you use the site.

A cookie is a small text file that is downloaded onto your computer when you visit our website and allows us to recognise you as a user. Typically, these contain two pieces of information: a site name and unique user ID. All information these cookies collect is aggregated and anonymous. Cookies are essential to the effective operation of our website. Cookies make the interaction between you and the website faster and easier.

PRIVACY POLICY

Scope of our Privacy Policy

Vinco applies the current Privacy Policy to its website, respecting the privacy of all personal data collected from its users. Through this Policy you can know how they are collected, treated and used. Vinco reserves the right to update its Privacy Policy at any time.

Generally, we use your personal data for the purpose for which we obtained it which include the following:

Responsible for the Personal Data Treatment

The Entity responsible for the processing of personal data is Vinco Valvulas,SA., with the NIPC 502332174 and headquartered in Rua do Progresso, lote 15 , 4760-841 Vilarinho das Cambas. V.N. Famalicão – Portugal which determines the purpose and means of treatment of the same.

For more information and clarification about this issue, you can contact us through the e-mail address rita.cruz@vincovalves.com

When and how we collect personal data

Your information is collected when you consent to subscribe to our online newsletter on our website, when you ask information through the chat or when you register.

Purposes of treatment

The reward of your data requires the management of the contractual relationship, accounting, fiscal and administrative management, provision of contracted services, adaptation of services to the needs and interests, and also information and marketing actions, in particular the sending of unsolicited communications for direct marketing purposes, namely the use of automated systems, campaigns, promotions, advertising and news about Vinco's products and/or services.

Personal data

Your data will be collected and stored for the period considered necessary to fulfil the intended purposes, until you cancel your subscription to the newsletter or until Vinco doesn't consider it pertinent to keep them in its database.

Access to data

Vinco will keep your personal data for the period necessary to provide the services and comply with legal obligations. Thus, and whenever there is no specific legal requirement, the data will be stored and kept only for the minimum period necessary for the purposes that led to its collection or subsequent processing, after which it will be eliminated.

Where data is stored

Your data is stored on Vinco Valvulas, SA servers located in the European Union and to which security and protection mechanisms are guaranteed in order to ensure compliance with the applicable privacy laws.

Rights and Complies of the data holder

In accordance with the provisions of the General Regulation on Data Protection, you have the right to request Vinco to access your personal data, as well as its rectification, erasure, limitation of the treatment that concerns the data subject or his right to oppose treatment, as well as the right to the portability of data, and also the right to withdraw consent at any time, without compromising the lawfulness of the treatment made on the basis of prior consent.

You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information (CNPD-National Commission for Data Protection) supervisory authority for data protection issues. We would, however, appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach the ICO so please contact us in the first instance.

For us this is a very important subject and, to that effect, we take internal measures to ensure the confidentiality and security of your personal data.
